DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Washington, D.C. 20520

July 19, 1977

Chris:

We had to scramble a bit to put this together, not having a chance to contribute to the CSCE paper prepared for your Belgrade stop.

Like the Schmidt visit, your Belgrade meetings are opportune for quieting some of the unrest over our Belgrade intentions -- this is the thrust of the talking points.

You might use them, as well, during your bilaterals. The Yugoslavs have many CSCE friends, and they are a prime stimulus among the "New Nine," the Neutrals and Non-Aligned who produced the comprehensive solution at Prepcon.

Patt.